

David Mansell Bio

- Dave began his real estate career at age 21 and has been an active REALTOR® ever since.
- Dave and his brother Al started Mansell & Associates Inc. in 1975, where Dave was a successful agent, office manager, relocation director, vice president and president. He and his brother grew the company from seven agents to 560 in 2001. The company received several national awards for relocation and was ranked 73rd in sales volume nationally.
- In 2001, they sold Mansell & Associates to NRT, a national brokerage, and combined it with Coldwell Banker Premier and the Wardley Corporation. The new company was named Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage and had a combined total had 1,900 agents and did $2.5 billion in sales.
- Dave served as the president of the new company for four years, actively reducing its size while maintaining its volume. He established a standard of ethical practices for agents wanting to be part of the company.
- In March 2005, he retired from management. He has kept his license active at Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage since that time.
- Dave now spends his time serving clients, working in investments and mostly giving service to both the REALTOR® association and other community entities like the Housing Authority of Salt Lake where he is chair of the board of commissioners.
- He has served on several committees for the National Association of REALTORS® and was a director for UAR and NAR from 1997 to 2005.
- Dave was elected UAR vice president for 2006, president-elect for 2007 and president for 2008.
- He says, “After all that I have been blessed with, it is required of me to give back to others so they may also have the opportunity to experience the joys and accomplishments that I have had in my life. I love real estate and I love the spirit of REALTORS®.”
- Dave is married to his sweetheart Margie Mansell and they have eight children and currently 11 grandchildren.
